

Resource Pack E

Making decisions

Split the class into groups, cut out the cards below and get the children to discuss their decisions.

Patty is playing a game online when someone called 'gamergirl12' sends her a message saying 'Hi, do you want to team up?'

What should she do?

What advice would you give to her?

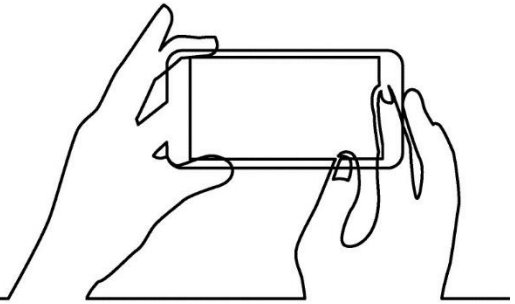

Ryan has posted a new video on his YouTube channel. He wants lots of views so he makes it public. When he comes back in an hour there are some nasty comments on it from people he doesn't know.

What should he do?

What advice would you give to him?

Someone took a video of Archie tripping over in the school sports day race and now everyone is sharing it on their phones. Archie is really upset.

What should he do?

What advice would you give to him?

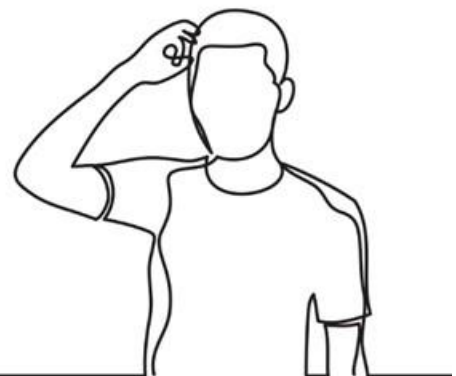

Gabby has been chatting to a friend she made online. The friend is really funny and makes her laugh. Then the friend suggests they meet up in the park.

What should she do?

What advice would you give to her?

James wants to play a computer game but his parents have said no, because it is only for older children. When he goes to a friend's house the friend has the game and says they can play it together.

What should he do?

What advice would you give to him?

Kiera has lots of friends. After school they talk to each other on social media. Some of them have started to call a girl in their class nasty names and make fun of her online.

What should she do?

What advice would you give to her?